REV. C. H. YATMAN

The Evangelist Closes Honolulu Meetings Tonight.

HE HAS DONE A GREAT WORK

Total of Thirty-six Sermons Since February 27—His Belief in a Command—Kindly to All.

Evangelist Yatman closes his series of services at the First Methodist Church to-night and will sail on the "Gaelic" for Japan and China to-morrow. Rev. Mr. Yatman is an indefatigable worker, an earnest speaker, and the very first impression is the simple honest sincerity of the man.
There are no "frills" about him—he uses only plain English that a child can understand, and he has an inexhaustible fund of personal experiences and illustrations that enforce the Gospel he preaches.

To give an idea of his work here:
He arrived in the city on Monday, Feb. 27th, and he will have preached his thirty-sixth sermon to-night. He believes in obeying the command literally—"Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." He has largely obeyed that command here in Honolulu—he has preached to the English-speaking people, the native Hawaiian, the Portuguese, the Japanese and the Chinese. All the services have been well attended and no doubt a great deal of good has been accomplished. He has had only one great central object in all these services, which to use his own words is "To make bad people good and to make good people better," and he has faithfully stuck to his text. To show the unselfishness of the man he told his congregation Monday night that the first and most important thing in life was to become a Christian—"Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness," and then as soon as they became Christians join the Church at once—any Church of your choice—any Church where you can be of service, and do something. If you can do better service in the Episcopal Church, unite with that Church at once —if you can better serve the Master in Central Union Church, that is the place for you, or if the "Christian" Church, unite there, or if you prefer the Methodist Church we ask you to unite here, and when you have united with the Church of your choice be faithful and loyal to that Church, and be in your place all the time, for I do think of all the tramps in the world, the Church tramp is about the worst—one who runs here, there and everywhere, and is no account anywhere. "Be thou faithful unto death."

There was a large congregation out last night and a very solemn service was held at the close of the meeting, nearly everybody in the Church taking active part. The subject for to-night, the last service, will be: "Heaven, the City Four Square." Many alohas and Godspeeds will follow Rev. Mr. Yatman when he leaves Honolulu.

Mr. Yatman says he has the kindest feelings toward the Press of Honolulu and wishes especially to thank the "Commercial Advertiser" for the daily notices of the meetings and for his loyal support of him in his efforts to "do good unto all men."

POLICE STATION.

The Headquarters Building is to Be Enlarged.

The new "hurry up" wagon of the Police Department will arrive in a few days. It forms a part of the Diamond Head's cargo which is expected any day now.

In connection with the new wagon, improvements on an extensive scale will soon be begun on the Police Department building. The part of the building on the Ewa side is to be raised one story. It will then be of the same height as the part in which the courtroom is situated.

The building which is now being used as a stable will be torn down and a fine new structure will replace it.
These improvements have been in contemplation some time. The plans have been decided upon and bids for construction will be called for in the course of a few days.

HIGH JINKS.

Company B Has Another Session of Fun and Frolic

Company B gave a jinks last evening after drill. Invitations couched in most classic language had been issued to all the members and a number of friends and as a result the company room was crowded.

The program was impromptu and was quite good. A kangaroo court was held. The culprit was charged with being too clean and was convicted. He was sentenced to pose on a table during the rest of his unnatural life. One of the most pleasing parts of the program was a song by Al Moore, who was voted in as a "jolly good fellow." These little entertainments do much toward creating company enthusiasm and are very interesting.

A. R. De Fluenc, editor of the Journal, Doylestown, Ohio, suffered for a number of years from rheumatism in his right shoulder and side. He says:
"My right arm at times was entirely useless. I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and was surprised to receive relief almost immediately. The Pain Balm has been a constant companion of mine ever since and it never fails."

Tyne, England, with 10 bbls. Vacuum Cylinder Oil, 30 bbls. Marine Engine Oil, 4 bbls. Arctic Engine Oil.

The use of the Vacuum Oils is increasing in all the markets of the world. The explanation of this is no doubt in part due to the fact that the Vacuum Oil Company uses petroleum from wells which show no traces of asphaltum.

Asphaltum is very injurious to machinery, and cheap oils containing it should be avoided.

A comparative test of Oils sold in this market, on one plantation, has resulted in an order for 48 bbls. of Vacuum Oils.
